

Film Screening

at Beaverton City Library
Tuesday, Nov. 19, 2024 | 5-7 PM

Join us for a film screening of Jack Has a Plan, a 73-minute feature documentary directed by Bradley Berman. When Jack Tuller, a man with a terminal brain tumor for 25 years, decides to end his life, his family and friends struggle to accept his decision. Jack's best friend documents his three-year quest to die a happy man, culminating in a permanent going-away party. Death Doula & Celebrant Holly Pruett will moderate a discussion after the film.
